CHAP. 1792.—An Act To provide for an additional associate justice of the supreme court of the Territory of New Mexico.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter the supreme court of the Territory of New Mexico shall consist of a chief justice and five associate justices, any four of whom shall constitute a quorum: Provided, That the judge who presided at the trial of a cause in the court below shall not sit at the hearing of the same case on appeal or writ of error in the supreme court of the Territory.

SEC. 2. That it shall be the duty of the President to appoint one additional associate justice of said supreme court in manner now provided by law, who shall hold his office for the term of four years and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

SEC. 3. That the said Territory shall be divided into six judicial districts, and a district court shall be held in each district by one of the justices of the supreme court at such time and place as is or may be prescribed by law. Each judge, after assignment, shall reside in the district to which he is assigned.

Six judicial districts.

SEC. 4. That the present chief justice and his associates are hereby vested with power and authority, and they are hereby directed, to divide said Territory into six judicial districts, and make such assignments of the judges provided for in the first section of this Act as shall, in their judgment, be meet and proper: Provided, That one of said judges shall reside and hold a district court in the city of Roswell.

Division and assignments.

SEC. 5. That the said district court shall have jurisdiction, and the same is hereby vested, to hear, try, and determine all matters and causes that the courts of the other districts of the Territory now possess; and for such purposes two terms of said court shall be held annually at such places within said district as may be designated by the chief justice and his associates, or a majority of them; and grand and petit jurors shall be summoned therein in the manner now required by law.

Proviso. District court at Roswell. Jurisdiction.

SEC. 6. That all offenses committed before the passage of this Act shall be prosecuted, tried, and determined in the same manner and with the same effect (except as to the number of judges) as if this Act had not passed.

Two terms annually.

Pending cases.

CHAP. 1793.—An Act To amend an Act entitled "An Act to authorize the construction of a bridge across the Mississippi River at Memphis, Tennessee," approved April twenty-fourth, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight.

April 28, 1904. [H. R. 2866.]

[Public, No. 225.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That an Act entitled "An Act to authorize the construction of a bridge across the Mississippi River at Memphis, Tennessee," approved April twenty-fourth, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows, namely:

Mississippi River. Bridge across at Memphis, Tenn. Vol. 25, p. 92, amended.

"That the Kansas City and Memphis Railway and Bridge Company, a corporation created and organized under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Arkansas, its successors and assigns, be, and the same are hereby, authorized and empowered to erect, construct, and maintain a bridge over the Mississippi River from or near the town of Hopefield, in the State of Arkansas, to or near the taxing district of Shelby County, commonly known as the city of Memphis, in the State of Tennessee. Said bridge shall be constructed to provide for the passage of passenger and freight railway trains and wagons and vehicles of all kinds, for the transit of animals, and, at the option of the company by which it may be built, for foot passengers: Provided, That said bridge company shall charge and receive such reasonable rates of toll for the passage of railway trains of all kinds, for the passage of passengers traveling upon said railway trains, for the passage of wagons and vehicles of all kinds, for the transit of animals, and for foot passengers crossing said bridge as may be approved from time to time by the Secretary of War: Provided further, That such reasonable rates of toll so approved by the Secretary of War shall not exceed the sum of twenty-five cents for each passenger over said bridge by passengers upon railway trains crossing the same.

Kansas City and Memphis Railway and Bridge Company may bridge.

Provisos. Toll.

Maximum for railway passengers added.

SEC. 2. That all laws or parts of laws in conflict with this Act be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

Repeal.

Approved, April 28, 1904.
