CHAP. 1815.—An Act To amend the law relating to taxation in the District of Columbia.

April 28, 1904.
[H. R. 8690.]

[Public, No. 247.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, beginning with the fiscal year commencing July first, nineteen hundred and four, the Board of personal tax appeals of the District of Columbia shall convene on the first Monday in February of each year, and continue in session to and including the second Monday in March of each year, instead of convening on the fifteenth day of November and continuing in session until the fifteenth day of December in each year, as now provided by law.

District of Columbia.
Session of the board of personal tax appeals changed.
Vol. 32, p. 617.

SEC. 2. That the Act of Congress approved July first, nineteen hundred and two, entitled "An Act making appropriations to provide for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and three, and for other purposes," is hereby amended as follows:

Dealers in general merchandise.
Vol. 32, p. 619, amended.

Strike out paragraph three of section six and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Dealers in general merchandise of every description shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia one and one-half per centum on the average stock in trade for the preceding year.

Tax on stock in trade.

"After the passage of this Act it shall be unlawful for any person or persons entering the District of Columbia subsequent to June thirtieth in each year and establishing a place of business for the sale of goods, wares, or merchandise, either at private sale or at auction, or engaging in the business of common carrier by vessels, ships, or boats, to conduct such business until a sworn statement of the value of such stock, vessels, ships, and boats has been filed with the assessor of the District of Columbia, who shall thereupon render a bill for the Statement of stock before conducting business.

Common carrier by vessels, etc., added.

Proviso. Exception.	unexpired portion of the fiscal year at the same rate as other personal taxes are levied: Provided, That this shall not apply to vessels, ships, or boats if it shall be made to appear by affidavit that any vessel, ship, or boat has been assessed for taxation and the taxes paid elsewhere.
Reassessment. Seizure for unpaid taxes.	“The assessor is hereby authorized to reassess said stock whenever in his judgment it has been undervalued. The goods, wares, and merchandise of any person or persons who shall fail to pay the tax required by this paragraph within three days after beginning business shall be subject to distraint, and it shall be the duty of the assessor to place bills therefor in the hands of the collector of taxes, who shall seize sufficient of the goods of the delinquent to satisfy said tax: Provided, That said owner shall have the right of redemption within thirty days on payment of said tax, to which shall be added a penalty of one per centum, together with the costs of seizure. The collector shall sell such goods as are not redeemed at public auction, after advertisement for the three days preceding said sale.”
Proviso. Redemption.	“That that part of the proviso in paragraph five, section six, relating to street railroads “shall be construed to mean that all street railroad companies shall pay four per centum per annum on their gross receipts within the District of Columbia and other taxes as provided by existing law.”
Street railroads to pay on receipts in the District.	Strike out paragraph six of section six and substitute following therefor: “All companies, incorporated or otherwise, who guarantee the fidelity of any individual or individuals, such as bonding companies, and all companies who furnish abstracts of titles to real property, or who insure real estate titles, shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia one and one-half per centum of their gross receipts in the District of Columbia.”
Tax on real estate title companies added. Vol. 32, p. 619, amended.	In section six, at the end of paragraph seven, add— “That hereafter, beginning with the fiscal year commencing July first, nineteen hundred and four, incorporated savings banks paying interest to their depositors shall, through their president or cashier, make report under oath to the board of personal tax appraisers on or before the first day of August in each year as to the amount of their gross earnings, less the amount paid as interest to their depositors for the preceding year ending June thirtieth, and shall pay thereon to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia four per centum per annum.”
Savings banks taxed on gross earnings less interest to depositors. Vol. 32, p. 619, amended.	In section six the proviso of paragraph eight is hereby amended so as to read as follows: “Provided, That nothing in this paragraph contained shall be construed to include business companies which, by reason of or in addition to incorporation receive no special franchise or privilege; but all such corporations shall be rated, assessed, and taxed as individuals conducting business in similar lines are rated, assessed, and taxed.”
Tax on capital stock. Business companies receiving no special franchise not included. Vol. 32, p. 620, amended.	Section six, paragraph nine, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: “Building associations in the District of Columbia shall pay to the collector of taxes of the District of Columbia two per centum per annum on their entire gross earnings for the preceding year ending June thirtieth.”
Building associations tax reduced. Vol. 32, p. 620, amended.	In section six the second portion of paragraph ten is hereby amended so as to read as follows: “Second. Libraries, schoolbooks, wearing apparel, and all family portraits.”
Exemptions modified.	In section six, at the end of paragraph twelve, add— “That hereafter when the collector of taxes shall distraint any goods and chattels in order to enforce payment of taxes levied under the aforesaid Act, approved July first, nineteen hundred and two, the goods and chattels so seized shall be kept in a safe and convenient
