Preamble.

CHAP. 817.—An Act To approve and ratify Act Numbered Seventy-three of the legislative assembly of the Territory of Arizona.

Whereas on the nineteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and three, the legislative assembly of the Territory of Arizona enacted the following law:

“To provide for the loan of one hundred thousand dollars for the purpose of making improvements to the Territorial Asylum for the Insane and for authorizing the issuance of bonds for said amount, and for other purposes; and

“Whereas the number of insane persons confined in the Territorial Asylum for the Insane is now almost three hundred; and

“Whereas the accommodations for such insane persons at the Territorial Asylum for the Insane are not adequate for the proper care and accommodation of more than one hundred and fifty insane patients; and

“Whereas as a result of this overcrowded condition in the Territorial Asylum for the Insane many patients are crowded into small rooms only suitable for the accommodation of one or two patients at the most; and, as a further result, it is impossible under existing conditions to make adequate sanitary provisions for the health and welfare of the inmates of said institution for the insane, rendering it impossible for those in charge of said institution to properly separate and classify these unfortunate beings possessed of different kinds and degrees of insanity and kindred affections, but such management is obliged to confine the patients so afflicted in the same wards and rooms miscellaneously; and

“Whereas some of the rooms and wards of the Territorial Asylum for the Insane provided for such unfortunates are so located as not to be accessible to the sunlight at any season of the year, and the health of the patients kept in such cells is thereby greatly endangered and the possibility of restoration to reason and an ultimate cure prevented; and

“Whereas on account of the foregoing conditions it is impossible for the warden of the Territorial Asylum for the Insane to render adequate and oftentimes necessary medical aid and attention to the inmates: Now, therefore,

“Be it enacted by the legislative assembly of the Territory of Arizona.
