SEC. 6. That the appropriations made to carry into effect the provisions of legislation authorizing the acquisition of land for sites for public buildings or the enlargement thereof, or for the construction, enlargement, extension, remodeling, or special repairs of public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, shall be deemed to be available only for the purposes specifically enumerated in said legislation, and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to submit to Congress annually detailed estimates of appropriations necessary for defraying all expenses, both in the Office of the Supervising Architect and in the field, of every kind and character incident to, or requisite for, the administrative work of carrying into effect the provisions of this or subsequent public-building Acts, so far as the same relate to public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, such estimates to be in addition to and separate and apart from the estimates of appropriations providing specifically for the salaries of certain officers and employees in the Office of the Supervising Architect; that the appropriations for said administrative work, when made, shall be immediately available for such personal services and all other expenses and supplies, both for office and field work, as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem necessary and specially order or approve to carry into effect the provisions of this and subsequent Acts relating to the acquisition of land for sites or the enlargement thereof, or for the construction, enlargement, extension, remodeling, or special repairs of public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, including the annual appropriations under the control of the Supervising Architect: Provided, That such persons as may be regularly appointed and paid from such appropriations shall be subject, in all respects, to the laws, rules, and regulations respecting entrance into or separation from the classified civil service of the United States, and shall be employed only in the Office of the Supervising Architect or in fieldwork of construction and repair under his supervision and control, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall annually submit to Congress in the Book of Estimates a statement, showing the names of all persons whose salaries or compensation are paid from said appropriations, their duties, and the rate of compensation and the amount paid to each of them, respectively: And provided further, That this Act shall not be construed as rendering unavailable for the employment of personal services in the Office of the Supervising Architect, or for any other purpose now authorized by law, any of the appropriations or balances of appropriations made prior to July first, nineteen hundred and seven, for the acquisition of land for sites, or the enlargement thereof, or for the erection, enlargement, extension, remodeling, or special repairs of public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, or any of the annual appropriations under the control of the Supervising Architect. And all appropriations made in full or in part subsequent to July first, nineteen hundred and seven, for extension of the limits of cost of public buildings or sites, or for the acquisition of land for sites, or the enlargement thereof, or for the erection, enlargement, extension, remodeling, or special repairs of public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, or for any annual appropriation under the control of the Supervising Architect, shall be subject to the provisions hereof.

Disposal of present
building.
New building authorized on site.
Ante, p. 490.

SEC. 7. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to dispose of the Federal building at Danville, Illinois, at such time and in such manner and upon such terms as he may deem for the best interests of the United States; and to cause to be erected upon the site thereof a suitable and commodious building, including fireproof vaults, heating and ventilating apparatus, elevators, and approaches, complete, for the use of the post-office, United States courts, and other governmental offices in said city, at a limit of cost for said building not to exceed the sum of two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars. That the new building hereby authorized shall be protected from danger from fire in adjacent structures by an open space of not less than twenty-five feet on all sides, including streets and alleys, and the open space of forty feet required by existing law to be preserved for that purpose in connection with the present building is hereby reduced accordingly.

Open space.

Acquiring new site
by exchange.

That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and empowered, in his discretion, in lieu of the foregoing, to acquire by exchange for the present post-office building and the site thereof a rectangular site at the northeast corner of Harrison and Vermillion streets in said city, having a frontage on Vermillion street of not less than one hundred and forty feet, with a depth on Harrison street of at least one hundred and forty-eight feet and six inches, and to execute on behalf of the United States the necessary conveyances to effect such exchange; and also to acquire by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise so much of the remaining frontage on Vermillion street, between Harrison and Madison streets, and having a like depth of not less than one hundred and forty-eight feet and six inches, as he may deem necessary, to provide a suitable site for the building hereinafter authorized to be erected.

Erection of building on new site.

That upon said new site, when acquired as aforesaid, the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to cause to be constructed a suitable and commodious building, with fireproof vaults, heating and ventilating apparatus, elevators and approaches, complete, for the use and accommodation of the post-office, United States courts, and other governmental offices in said city, at a total limit of cost of not to exceed two hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars, including such land, if any, as may be acquired in addition to that secured by exchange for the present site.

That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed, in his discretion, to sell at private sale to the Florence Lodge, Numbered Eight hundred and twenty, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, at Florence, Alabama, the following-described strip or parcel of land, situate and being in the city of Florence, county of Lauderdale, State of Alabama: Beginning on the southerly line to Tombigbee street, in Florence, Alabama, at the northeasterly corner of the tract of land purchased by the United States Government from Dwight Devine and others on the seventeenth day of December, nineteen hundred and three, the deed to which is on record in the office of the probate judge of Lauderdale County, Alabama, book numbered sixty-seven, pages two hundred and ninety-five, two hundred and ninety-six, and two hundred and ninety-seven; thence at right angles to said Tombigbee street, southwardly, one hundred feet; thence, at right angles, westwardly, ten feet; thence, northwardly, at right angles, one hundred feet to Tombigbee street; thence at right angles eastwardly along the said street ten feet to the point of beginning, which embraces a strip of land ten feet in width and one hundred feet in length off the east side of the Federal building site in Florence, Alabama, for such an amount as the Secretary of the Treasury, in his judgment, shall deem to be a fair and just compensation for said property. The Secretary of the Treasury, in the event of such sale, is authorized and directed to execute a quitclaim deed to Florence Lodge, Numbered Eight hundred and twenty, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, at Florence, Alabama, conveying all the rights, title, claim, and interest of the United States in or to said above-described strip of land.

SEC. 10. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to acquire, by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, a site and building for the United States post-office and other governmental offices at Peekskill, New York, at a cost for said site and building of not to exceed forty thousand dollars.

That upon the title to said property being vested in the United States, the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby further authorized and directed to cause the building so acquired to be altered, remodeled, extended, or repaired for the use and accommodation of the United States post-office and other governmental offices in said city, including necessary changes in alterations, or remodeling of, or repair to, the heating, ventilating, and plumbing systems in said building at a cost not to exceed five thousand dollars.

SEC. 11. That the provision contained in the Act approved June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and six, authorizing and directing the Secretary of the Treasury to contract for the erection and completion of a suitable building, including fireproof vaults, heating and ventilating apparatus, and approaches, complete, for the use and accommodation of the United States post-office and court-house at Little Rock, Arkansas, upon ground now owned by the United States, at a limit of cost of one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to authorize and direct the Secretary of the Treasury, within said limit of cost, to enter into contracts for the enlargement, extension, remodeling, and improvement of the present post-office and court-house building at Little Rock, Arkansas.

SEC. 12. That the provision contained in the Act approved June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and six, authorizing and directing the Secretary of the Treasury to acquire, by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, such additional land as he may deem necessary for the enlargement of the present site, and to enter into contracts for the enlargement, extension, remodeling, or improvement of the United States subtreasury building at San Francisco, California, at a limit of cost of three hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to authorize and direct the Secretary of the Treasury, in his discretion, to acquire, by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, a suitable new site for, or to enlarge the present site of, the United States subtreasury at San Francisco, California, at a cost not to exceed the said sum of three hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars.

SEC. 13. That of the amount authorized in the Act approved June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and six, for the acquisition of a site and the erection thereon of a suitable building for the use and accommodation of the United States post-office and other governmental offices at San Diego, California, at a cost not to exceed one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, or so much thereof as of Columbia, the chairman of the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds of the United States Senate, and the chairman of the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds of the United States House of Representatives, for the purpose of investigating the title of the United States in and to all lands in the District of Columbia, with a view to protecting such title, filing a map of said lands, and ascertaining whether or not any individual or corporation is, without proper authority, occupying, in whole or in part, any such lands. Said commission shall also investigate and report on any and all transfers of title to such lands by the United States, either by authority of Congress or otherwise, and shall make recommendations as to the future policy of the Government with respect to the sale or retention of any and all such lands, title to which may have been or is now vested in the United States, and pending the report of said commission, unless otherwise directed by Congress, all authorizations heretofore made for the sale of Government land in the District of Columbia, in which conveyances have not been made or contracts entered into, shall be held in abeyance. The commission hereby created shall have authority to send for persons, papers, documents, public and private records, administer oaths, and to conduct such investigation in such manner as said commission may deem best, and shall report the results of such investigation to the Sixtieth Congress, together with its recommendations. And for the expense of said commission a sum not to exceed five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended on vouchers approved by the chairman of said commission.

SEC. 27. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and empowered, in his discretion, to convey, by quitclaim deed, to the city of San Juan, Porto Rico, for street and other purposes, such portions of the site in said city reserved for Federal building purposes by Executive order dated June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and three, as in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury may not be required for the present or probable future needs of the United States for sites for Federal buildings.

SEC. 28. That the Secretary of War or other officer having charge of the filtration plant and the Government reservation on which it is situated in the District of Columbia be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed to purchase or cause to be taken for public use, by condemnation or otherwise, as an addition to said reservation for the purpose of extending its boundaries any land embraced in square three thousand one hundred and twenty-six, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, not now owned by the United States or the District of Columbia.

That for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act the Secretary of War be, and he hereby is, authorized to expend the sum of eight thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, out of the amounts heretofore appropriated by Congress for a slow sand filtration plant, and for each and every purpose connected therewith.

SEC. 29. For the erection of a fireproof addition to the court-house of the District of Columbia, for the use of the court of appeals of said District, including such fireproof vaults as may be necessary to protect from destruction the papers and records of said court, and proper heating and ventilating apparatus, to be constructed under the supervision of and on plans to be furnished by the Superintendent of the Capitol Building and Grounds, and approved by the Attorney-General, two hundred thousand dollars is authorized.

SEC. 30. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to acquire by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, for the use and accommodation of the United States Departments of State, Justice and Commerce and Labor, the whole of squares numbered two hundred and twenty-six, two hundred and twenty-seven, two hundred and twenty-eight, two hundred and twenty-nine, and two hundred and thirty, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, and the sum of two million five hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to pay for the land so acquired is hereby authorized. That part of C street, Ohio avenue, D street, and E street lying between the squares named herein is hereby made a part of the site authorized by this Act. That should the Secretary of the Treasury decide to institute condemnation proceedings in order to secure any or all of the land herein authorized to be acquired, such proceedings shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress approved August thirtieth, eighteen hundred and ninety, providing a site for the enlargement of the Government Printing Office (United States Statutes at Large, volume twenty-six, chapter eight hundred and thirty-seven.)

SEC. 31. That for the purpose of beginning the construction of a suitable and commodious fireproof building for the accommodation of the United States post-office, United States courts, and other governmental offices at Denver, Colorado, fifty thousand dollars: Provided, That this authorization shall not be construed as fixing the limit of cost of said building at the sum hereby named, but the building hereby provided for shall be constructed or planned so as to cost, complete, including fireproof vaults, heating and ventilating apparatus, and approaches, but exclusive of site, not exceeding one million six hundred thousand dollars.

That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to enter into contracts for the construction of a suitable building for said purposes, to be designated by said Department, within the ultimate limit of cost above mentioned: Provided, That of the amount fixed as the ultimate limit of cost not to exceed fifty thousand dollars may be expended during the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and nine.

SEC. 32. That the sum of ten thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby, authorized, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War, to aid in the erection and completion of a memorial structure at Point Pleasant, West Virginia, to commemorate the battle of the Revolution fought at that point between the colonial troops and Indians October tenth, seventeen hundred and seventy-four: Provided, That no part of said appropriation shall be expended until the site and plans for said monument or memorial shall be approved by the Secretary of War and the grounds on which said monument or memorial is to be located shall be dedicated to the use of the public and provision is made for opening and maintaining an open highway thereto.

SEC. 33. That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed, in his discretion, to dispose of the site for a public building at Lawton, Oklahoma, at such time and in such manner and upon such terms as he may deem for the best interests of the United States, and the proceeds of such sale shall be held to be applied for the purchase of a new site as may hereafter be directed by law.

SEC. 34. That hereafter in all cases where appropriations are made in part only for carrying into effect the provisions of legislation authorizing the acquisition of land for sites or for the enlargement of sites for public buildings, or for the erection or remodeling, extension, alteration, and repairs of public buildings, the Secretary of the Treasury, unless otherwise specifically directed, be, and he is hereby, au-
