That in employing citizens for the purposes of this Act no discrimination shall be made on account of race, color, or creed; and no person under conviction for crime and serving sentence therefor shall be employed under the provisions of this Act. The President is further authorized to allocate funds available for the purposes of this Act, for forest research, including forest products investigations, by the Forest Products Laboratory.

SEC. 2. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act the President is authorized to enter into such contracts or agreements with States as may be necessary, including provisions for utilization of existing State administrative agencies, and the President, or the head of any department or agency authorized by him to construct any project or to carry on any such public works, shall be authorized to acquire real property by purchase, donation, condemnation, or otherwise, but the provisions of section 355 of the Revised Statutes shall not apply to any property so acquired.

SEC. 3. Insofar as applicable, the benefits of the Act entitled "An Act to provide compensation for employees of the United States suffering injuries while in the performance of their duties, and for other purposes", approved September 7, 1916, as amended, shall extend to persons given employment under the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 4. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act, there is hereby authorized to be expended, under the direction of the President, out of any unobligated moneys heretofore appropriated for public works (except for projects on which actual construction has been commenced or may be commenced within ninety days, and except maintenance funds for river and harbor improvements already allocated), such sums as may be necessary; and an amount equal to the amount so expended is hereby authorized to be appropriated for the same purposes for which such moneys were originally appropriated.

SEC. 5. That the unexpended and unallotted balance of the sum of $300,000,000 made available under the terms and conditions of the Act approved July 21, 1932, entitled "An Act to relieve destitution", and so forth, may be made available, or any portion thereof, to any State or Territory or States or Territories without regard to the limitation of 15 per centum or other limitations as to per centum.

SEC. 6. The authority of the President under this Act shall continue for the period of two years next after the date of the passage hereof and no longer.

Approved, March 31, 1933.

AN ACT

To provide revenue for the District of Columbia by the taxation of beverages, and for other purposes.

April 5, 1933.
[H. R. 3342.]
[Public, No. 7.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the term "beverage" as used in this Act means beer, lager beer, ale, porter, wine, similar fermented malt or vinous liquor, and fruit juice, containing one-half of 1 per centum or more of alcohol by volume, and not more than 3.2 per centum of alcohol by weight.

Taxation of beverages in District of Columbia.
Post, p. 336.
Vol. 39, p. 1123, amended.
"Beverage" defined.
Alcoholic content.

SEC. 2. (a) No individual, partnership, association, or corporation shall within the District of Columbia manufacture for sale or sell any beverage without having first obtained a permit under this Act for such manufacture or sale.

Permits to manufacture or sell required.
Post, p. 335.

(b) No individual shall within the District of Columbia offer for sale, or solicit any order for the sale of, within the District of Columbia, any beverage unless—

Offer for sale or soliciting orders, without permit forbidden.

(1) such individual has first obtained a permit of the character described in section 4(a)(5); and

Post, p. 26.

(2) the vendor is the holder of a permit issued under this Act authorizing such sale.

Vendor.

Nothing in this subsection shall apply to any offer for sale or solicitation made upon the premises designated in the permit of the vendor.

SEC. 3. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to issue permits to individuals, partnerships, or corporations, but not to unincorporated associations, on application duly made therefor for the manufacture, sale, offer for sale, or solicitation of orders for sale, of beverages within the District of Columbia, subject, however, to the limitations and restrictions imposed by this Act. The Commissioners shall keep a full record of all applications for permits, of all recommendations for and remonstrances against the granting of permits, and of the action taken thereon.

Persons to whom permits may be issued.

SEC. 4. (a) Permits issued under authority of this Act shall be of five kinds:

Record to be kept.

Kinds of permits.

(1) "On sale" permits, which shall be issued only for bona fide restaurants or hotels, or for bona fide incorporated clubs with annual dues of at least $6. Such permits shall authorize the permittee to sell beverages for consumption on the premises designated in the permit, (A) in the case of restaurants, at public tables, but no beverage shall be sold or served in any room not used primarily for the serving and consumption of food; except that beverages may be sold or served to assemblages of more than six individuals in private rooms or at private tables when expressly authorized by the Commissioners, or (B) in the case of hotels or clubs, at tables or in the rooms of guests or members. No such permit shall be issued for any restaurant which has not been established and doing business for at least two months immediately prior to the application for such permit: Provided, That it shall be within the discretion of the Commissioners whether any permit under this Act shall be issued for the sale of any such beverages in any building in the District of Columbia owned or leased by the United States and used for the transaction of public business;
