AN ACT

To amend the Classification Act of 1923, as amended.

August 1, 1941
 [H. R. 1073]
 [Public Law 200]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

Classification Act of 1923, amendments.
 42 Stat. 1488.
 5 U. S. C., ch. 13.

SEC. 2. Section 7 of the said Act is hereby amended by inserting the letter "(a)" after the figure "7" at the beginning of said section, and by adding the following paragraphs as subsections thereof:

42 Stat. 1490.
 5 U. S. C. § 667.

"(b) All employees compensated on a per annum basis, and occupying permanent positions within the scope of the compensation schedules fixed by this Act, who have not attained the maximum rate of compensation for the grade in which their positions are respectively allocated, shall be advanced in compensation successively to the next higher rate within the grade at the beginning of the next quarter, following the completion of: (1) Each eighteen months of service if such employees are in grades in which the compensation increments are $60 or $100, or (2) each thirty months of service if such

Compensation advancements within grade.

Periods.

- Conditions. employees are in grades in which the compensation increments are $200 or $250, subject to the following conditions:
- “(1) That no equivalent increase in compensation from any cause was received during such period, except increase made pursuant to subsection (f) of this section;
- “(2) That an employee whose rate of compensation is below the middle rate of the grade shall not be advanced unless his current efficiency is good or better than good;
- “(3) That an employee whose rate of compensation is at or above the middle rate of the grade shall not be advanced unless his current efficiency is better than good;
- “(4) That the service and conduct of such employee are certified by the head of the department or agency or such official as he may designate as being otherwise satisfactory.
- “Good” defined.
42 Stat. 1490.
5 U. S. C. § 669. “(c) The term ‘good’ as used herein shall be defined in accordance with the systems of efficiency rating established pursuant to section 9 of this Act.
- Custodial service. “(d) For the purposes of this section, the fourth salary rate in grades 2 and 3 of the custodial service shall be considered the middle rate.
- Service immediately preceding. “(e) Employees eligible under subsection (b) for compensation advancement by reason of service immediately preceding the effective date of this amendment shall be advanced to the next higher rate of compensation within the grade to which their positions are respectively allocated at the beginning of the next quarter immediately following the effective date of this amendment.
- Especially meritorious services, advancements. “(f) Within the limit of available appropriations, and in recognition of especially meritorious services, the head of any department or agency is authorized to make additional within-grade compensation advancements, but any such additional advancements shall not exceed one step and no employee shall be eligible for more than one additional advancement hereunder within each of the time periods specified in subsection (b). All actions under this subsection and the reasons therefor shall be reported to the Civil Service Commission. The Commission shall present an annual consolidated report to the Congress covering the numbers and types of actions taken under this subsection.
- Report of actions. “(g) The President is hereby authorized to issue such regulations as may be necessary for the administration of this section.
- Administrative regulations. “(h) The provisions of subsections (b) to (f), both inclusive, of this section shall not apply to the compensation of persons appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.”
