

upon designation of the President of the United States, not exceeding twenty persons at a time from the American Republics (other than the United States) and Canada to receive instruction at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland. Not more than three persons from any of such Republics and Canada shall receive instruction under authority of this Act at the same time."

10 U. S. C. § 1093c. SEC. 2. The first and second sentences of section 1 of the Act of June 26, 1946 (Public Law 447, Seventy-ninth Congress, second session; 60 Stat. 311), is amended by inserting in the first sentence after the phrase "(other than the United States)" the words "and Canada" and by inserting in the second sentence after the words "of such republics" the words "and Canada" so that the first and second sentences as so amended will read as follows:

"That the Secretary of the Army is hereby authorized to permit, upon designation of the President of the United States, not exceeding twenty persons at a time from the American Republics (other than the United States) and Canada to receive instruction at the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York. Not more than three persons from any one of such republics and Canada shall receive instruction under authority of this Act at the same time."
