[No. 40.] Joint Resolution To provide for representation of foreign governments growing out of existing hostilities in Europe and elsewhere, and for other purposes.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That to enable the United States to fulfill the obligations devolving upon it in connection with or growing out of its representation of the interests of foreign Governments and their nationals, and to extend temporary assistance to other Governments and their nationals, made necessary by hostilities in Europe and elsewhere, by transferring or advancing funds for diplomatic and consular expenses and for the care or benefit of citizens or subjects of foreign nations, there is appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $1,000,000, to be available during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and fifteen, and to be disbursed under the direction and in the discretion of the Secretary of State: Provided, That payments made by foreign Governments or their citizens or subjects shall be credited to this appropriation and be available for the purpose herein specified: Provided further, That all sums received by the United States in final reimbursement of amounts paid by it out of the $1,000,000 herein appropriated shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States as "miscellaneous receipts."

The Secretary of State shall submit to Congress at the next session, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, a report of the amount repaid to the United States, with such further information upon the subject as may be, in his judgment, consistent with the public interest.
