SEC. 2. Such Act of August 24, 1912, as amended, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sections:

New section.
Vol. 37, p. 507, amended.

"SEC. 5. (a) On and after the effective date of this subdivision the importation into the United States of seeds of alfalfa or red clover, or any mixture of seed containing 10 per centum or more of the seeds of alfalfa and/or red clover, is prohibited unless such seeds are colored in such manner and to such extent as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe and, when practicable, the color used shall indicate the country or region of origin.

Importation of alfalfa or red clover seeds prohibited unless colored, etc.

"(b) Whenever the Secretary of Agriculture, after public hearing, determines that seeds of alfalfa or red clover from any foreign country or region are not adapted for general agricultural use in the United States he shall publish such determination. On and after the expiration of ninety days after the date of such publication and until such determination is revoked the importation into the United States of any of such seeds, or of any mixture of seeds containing 10 per centum or more of such seeds of alfalfa and/or red clover, is prohibited, unless at least 10 per centum of the seeds in each container is stained a red color, in accordance with such regulations as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe.

Publication of seed not adapted to agricultural use.

Importation prohibited.

Stained seeds excepted.

"(c) The Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of Agriculture shall jointly prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary to prevent the importation into the United States of any seeds the importation of which is prohibited.

Rules, etc., to be prescribed.

"(d) Subdivision (a) of this section shall become effective upon the expiration of thirty days after the date of the passage of this amendatory Act.

Effective in 30 days.

"SEC. 6. (a) No person shall transport, deliver for transportation, sell, or offer for sale, in interstate commerce, any seed which is misbranded within the meaning of this section; except that this section shall not apply to any common carrier in respect of any seed transported or delivered for transportation in the ordinary course of its business as a common carrier.

Transporting, selling, etc., misbranded seeds forbidden.

Grounds for seizure, etc.	“(b) Any misbranded seed shall be liable to be proceeded against in the district court of the United States for any judicial district in which it is found, and to be seized for confiscation by a process of libel for condemnation, if such seed is being—
Interstate transportation.	“(1) Transported in interstate commerce; or
Subsequent sale.	“(2) Held for sale or exchange after having been so transported.
Disposal of condemned seed.	“(c) If such seed is condemned by the court as misbranded, it shall be disposed of in the discretion of the court—
Sale.	“(1) By sale; or
Delivery to owner under bond, etc.	“(2) By delivery to the owner thereof upon the payment of the legal costs and charges, and the execution and delivery of a good and sufficient bond to the effect that such seed will not be sold or disposed of in any jurisdiction contrary to the provisions of this Act or the laws of such jurisdiction; or
Destruction.	“(3) By destruction.
Use of proceeds from sale.	“(d) If such seed is disposed of by sale, the proceeds of the sale, less the legal costs and charges, shall be paid in to the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.
Legal proceedings.	“(e) Proceedings in such libel cases shall conform, as nearly as may be, to suits in rem in admiralty, except that either party may demand trial by jury on any issue of fact if the value in controversy exceeds $20; and facts so tried shall not be reexamined other than in accordance with the rules of the common law. All such proceedings shall be at the suit and in the name of the United States. The Supreme Court of the United States and, under its direction, other courts of the United States are authorized to prescribe rules regulating such proceedings in any particular not provided by law.
Terms construed.	“(f) As used in this section—
“Person.”	“(1) The term ‘person’ means individual, partnership, corporation, or association;
“Interstate commerce.”	“(2) The term ‘interstate commerce’ means commerce between any State, Territory, or possession, or the District of Columbia, and any other State, Territory, or possession, or the District of Columbia; or between points within the same State, Territory, or possession, or the District of Columbia, but through any place outside thereof; or within any Territory or possession, or the District of Columbia; and
“District court of the United States.”	“(3) The term ‘district court of the United States’ includes any court exercising the powers of a district court of the United States.
Misbranding described.	“(g) For the purposes of this section, seed shall be held to be misbranded if—
False statement on container.	“(1) The container thereof, or the invoice relating thereto, or any advertising pertaining thereto, bears or contains any statement, design, or device that is false and fraudulent; or
Seed not colored.	“(2) If such seed is required to be colored, under the provisions of section 5 and the regulations issued thereunder, and is not so colored; or
Imitation of color of seed.	“(3) If such seed is colored in imitation of seed required to be colored under the provisions of section 5 and the regulations issued thereunder.
Regulations to be prescribed.	“(h) The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to prescribe such regulations as may be necessary for carrying out the provisions of this section.
Effective date.	“(i) This section shall take effect upon the date of the passage of this amendatory Act; but no penalty or condemnation shall be enforced for any violation of this section occurring within thirty days after such date.”
Penalties not enforced for 30 days.

Approved, April 26, 1926.
