AN ACT

July 11, 1941
[H. R. 4658]
[Public Law 166]

To amend and clarify certain Acts pertaining to the Coast Guard, and for other purposes.

Coast Guard.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 2 of the Act of August 28, 1916 (39 Stat. 538; U. S. C., title 33, sec. 732), is hereby amended to read as follows:

Exchange of rights-of-way.

"The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, whenever he shall deem it advisable, to exchange any right-of-way of the United States in connection with lands pertaining to the United States Coast Guard for such other right-of-way as may be advantageous to the Service, under such terms and conditions as he may deem to be for the best interests of the Government; and in case any expenses, not exceeding the sum of $500, are incurred by the United States in making such exchange, the same shall be payable from the appropriation 'Coast Guard, General Expenses' for the fiscal year during which such exchange shall be effected."

Payment of expenses.

SEC. 2. Section 2 of the Act of August 16, 1937 (50 Stat. 667; U. S. C., Supp. V, title 33, sec. 721a), is hereby amended by striking out the words "Lighthouse Service" wherever they appear and substituting therefor the words "Coast Guard", and by adding a new sentence at the end thereof as follows: "In the event such payment is deposited subsequent to payment by the Coast Guard from appropriated funds to the person or persons repairing or replacing the damaged property, such payment shall be deposited to the credit of the appropriation current at the time the collection is made."

Deposit of damage payments.
33 U. S. C. § 721a.

SEC. 3. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized, during the national emergency declared by the President on September 8, 1939, to exist, to negotiate contracts on behalf of the Coast Guard for the acquisition, construction, repair, or alteration of complete Coast Guard vessels or aircraft, or any portion thereof, including plans, spare parts, and equipment therefor, that have been or may be authorized, and also for machine tools and other similar equipment on the same basis and subject to the same limitations, and with the same privilege of priority in deliveries as is provided for similar contracts authorized to be negotiated by the Secretary of the Navy by section 2 (a) of the Act of June 28, 1940 (Public, Numbered 671, Seventy-sixth Congress, third session).

SEC. 8. Section 1 of the Act of May 26, 1906 (34 Stat. 200), as amended (U. S. C., Supp. V, title 14, sec. 35), is hereby further amended by substituting the word "four" for "three" in subparagraph (a); by changing the phrase "one, two, or three full years" in subparagraph (b) to "one, two, three, or four full years"; by deleting subparagraph (c); and by adding two new subparagraphs, (c) and (d), reading as follows:

"(c) Under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, an enlisted man may be detained in the Coast Guard beyond the term of his enlistment—

"1. until the first arrival of the vessel on which he is serving at its permanent station, or at a port in a State of the United States or in the District of Columbia;

"2. until the first arrival of an enlisted man attached to a shore station beyond the continental limits of the United States or in Alaska at a port in any State of the United States or in the District of Columbia where his reenlistment or discharge may be effected, or until he can be discharged or reenlisted at his station beyond the continental limits of the United States or in Alaska, whichever is earlier, but in no event to exceed three months;

"3. with his consent, while undergoing medical or hospital treatment for injury, sickness, or disease incurred incident to service, until a final determination is made with reference to his eligibility for reenlistment, retirement, or discharge, but in no event to exceed six months;

"4. while awaiting disciplinary action or trial and disposition of his case;

"5. for a period of not exceeding thirty days in other cases not specifically covered by this section, when essential to the public interests: Provided, That the determination that such detention is essential to the public interests, made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be final and conclusive.

Proviso.

Pay and allowances.

"(d) Any person detained in the Coast Guard, as provided in subparagraph (c) of this section, shall be entitled to receive pay and allowances and benefits under the same conditions as though his enlistment period had not expired, and shall be subject in all respects to the laws and regulations for the government of the Coast Guard until his discharge therefrom: Provided, That enlisted men detained under the provisions of subparagraph (c) 1 of this section shall be entitled to the pay and allowances provided for enlisted personnel of the Navy detained under similar circumstances: Provided further, That pay or allowances shall not accrue for any period beyond the term of enlistment in the case of an enlisted person detained in accordance with subparagraph (c) 4 of this section if the trial results in conviction."

Provisos.

SEC. 9. (a) The Act of May 27, 1908 (35 Stat. 417), as amended (U. S. C., title 39, sec. 134), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Mail clerks.

"Enlisted men of the United States Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard may, upon selection by the Secretary of the Navy in the case of the Navy or Marine Corps, and by the Secretary of the Treasury in the case of the Coast Guard, be designated by the Post Office Department as 'Navy mail clerks' and 'assistant Navy mail clerks' and as 'Coast Guard mail clerks' and 'assistant Coast Guard mail clerks', who shall be authorized to receive and open all pouches and sacks of mail addressed to naval and Coast Guard vessels, as the case may be, to make proper delivery of such mail, to receive matter for transmission in the mails, to receipt for registered matter (keeping an accurate record thereof), to keep and have for sale an adequate supply of postage stamps, to make up and dispatch mails, and other postal duties as may be authorized by the Postmaster General, all in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the commanding officer of the vessel or of the squadron to which the vessel is attached. Such enlisted men may also be designated as Navy mail clerks and assistant Navy mail clerks and as Coast Guard mail clerks and assistant Coast Guard mail clerks with expeditionary forces on shore or for duty at stations and shore establishments under the Navy Department and the Treasury Department, respectively, where the services of such mail clerks and assistant mail clerks are necessary. Each mail clerk and assistant mail clerk shall take the oath of office prescribed for employees of the Postal Service and shall be amenable in all respects to naval and Coast Guard discipline, as the case may be, except that, as to their duties as such clerks, the commanding officers of the vessels upon which they are stationed shall require them to be governed by the postal laws and regulations of the United States. Whenever necessity arises therefor any assistant mail clerk may be required by the commanding officer of the vessel upon which he is stationed or of the squadron to which said vessel is attached to perform the duties of mail clerk. They shall receive as compensation for such services from the Navy Department or from the Treasury Department, as the case may be, in addition to that paid them of the grade to which they are assigned, such sum in the case of mail clerks not to exceed $500 per annum, and in that of assistant mail clerks not to exceed $300 per annum, as may be determined and allowed by the Navy Department and by the Treasury Department, respectively."

Services with expeditionary forces, etc.

Oath of office.

Compensation.

(b) Section 3 of the Act of August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 554; U. S. C., title 39, sec. 135), is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Every Navy mail clerk and assistant Navy mail clerk and every Coast Guard mail clerk and assistant Coast Guard mail clerk shall give bond to the United States in such penal sum as the Postmaster General may deem sufficient for the faithful performance of his duties as such clerk."

Bonds.

SEC. 10. The Coast Guard Auxiliary and Reserve Act of 1941 (Public, Numbered 8, Seventy-seventh Congress), is hereby amended as follows:

Coast Guard Auxiliary and Reserve Act of 1941, amendments.

(1) Section 9.
